Description

This two-bedroom flat is for sale in a converted listed building in Walsall town centre, occupying a top floor position within Bridge Lofts. The property offers a reception room and a separate kitchen, together with a bathroom serving the two bedrooms. It is being sold via online auction with Pattinsons Auctions.

Located in the heart of Walsall, the flat provides access to a wide range of local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants in and around the town centre. Walsall Arboretum, a large public park with lakes, play areas and open green space, is within easy reach and offers opportunities for walking, leisure and community events.

Public transport connections are readily available. Walsall railway station, situated in the town centre, provides regular services to Birmingham New Street, typically taking around 20–25 minutes, as well as links towards Wolverhampton and Rugeley. Local bus services operate from the town and connect surrounding neighbourhoods and nearby centres.

The position within a converted listed building may appeal to buyers seeking accommodation in a property with character features in a central setting. The combination of two bedrooms, a reception room, kitchen and bathroom, alongside town centre amenities and transport options, makes this flat a practical choice for a range of purchasers interested in a Walsall location.
